FEBRUARY 12, 2023 † SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From The Pastor

In the gospel of St. Matthew, Jesus is presented as the new Moses. Jesus is the Great Teacher of the new covenant with God. In the Old Testament, Moses was the great Prophet of God who led the enslaved Israelites out of Egypt and into the Promised Land. Moses was the mediator between God and the people. It was to Moses that God dictated the Ten Commandments for the formation and right order of those who desired to follow the Divine way.

For three weeks now, we have been reading from the Sermon on the Mount as Jesus teaches both the disciples and a large crowd. First, we heard the Beatitudes followed by the teaching on salt and light. Today, Jesus widens the understanding and meaning of the Ten Commandments. As a Jew, Jesus honors the meaning and intention of the Jewish law. Jesus makes it clear that he will not abolish the Law but will bring it to fulfillment. Law alone is not the way of God.

The first reading gives us good insight into the intention of Divine law, as well as the wisdom of free will in making mature decisions from the heart. Human beings need laws and boundaries to find meaningful and righteous direction in life. Consider the value and necessity of raising children. Good parenting not only provides children a secure home with appropriate food, shelter, clothing, and consistent love, but also moral values, manners, and a foundation of faith in God and the gift of Christ. Without such formation, children can feel less secure as they seek to form an identity and move into a turbulent and amoral society.

In 586 BC., Babylon destroyed the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem and led the people into exile. The Jewish exiles had to wrestle with how to remain faithful to their covenant with God with no Temple or ritual sacrifices. Many fell away and adopted the practices and gods of Babylon. Others clung to and studied the remains of the Torah. This is the setting of the first reading. The people are forced to make a decision. Will they choose the ways of God or choose their own way. One leads to life, the other to spiritual death.

The wisdom of God is the gift of free will. Each of us must make a choice. Will we choose to follow the commands of God or forge our own path in life? In the absence of a Temple and the loss of ritual sacrifice, those who chose God and studied the Torah came to realize God in their hearts. From within, they came to know and honor God with love. They were able to speak of God from their hearts and not only from the practice of ritual sacrifice and religious obedience of laws.

Consider the wisdom of free will. God knows free will is the only way to love. God has no desire to force our love through fearful obedience or shameful punishment. To know and to love God must be an action and decision of the heart. Jesus was not a sin-based person. He was not looking for sinners and lawbreakers to force obedience to his message. Nor was Jesus indifferent about sin. He knew the separation and disorder it caused. Jesus was most interested in persons who needed love, healing, forgiveness, and acceptance. Hearts open and able to interact with love will seek God in the desire of righteous living.

The fulfilment of the Law is only realized in the love of the Holy Spirit. Law alone will never make it in heaven. The most faithful law keepers may be found wanting in the ways of love. This was the great tension for the Scribes and Pharisees. They used the Law for their personal justification as well as power and control over others. Love in the heart did not seem to fit into the picture.

Is it enough to say, 'I've never killed anyone,' if the heart is filled with anger, hatred, or resentment? The heart is bound by what it clings to. This is the point Jesus is making. If in anger we cast condemning judgement on another, are we not killing their good name or reputation through the darkness of our own heart? In such emotion, are we not 'breaking' the love we presume to have in our own hearts? This dynamic is the same for each of the Commandments addressed today. What is the will and intention of the heart in relationship to God?

The example of the first reading is effective for us today. Many have drifted away from Christianity for one reason or another. Social, cultural, moral, and civil practices of society have changed. People prefer to determine their own truth according to the personal right of free will. The formation of moral conscience and the integrity of personal character is often surrendered to our increasingly secular culture. This does not bode well for personal happiness and maturity of society. Social peace and integrity can only grow from hearts close to God.

Faith is a relationship of trust in the love of God revealed in the Lord Jesus. Faith is also a discipline. It takes time, effort, and courage to choose the ways of God made visible in Jesus. God knows we are sinners. It is not a secret. We are weak. We fail and fall down. The faithful get up and keep going. Sin is forgivable. Love heals sin. Jesus is Divine love given for you. For those who choose to be their own highest truth, the road will be long and lonely.

Please Respond To Our HEALTH CARE SURVEY

What are some of the things about your health or that of your family that concern you? What types of subjects would you like to see to better meet your health needs? You can help us identify the healthcare educational needs of the parish. We can work together to nurture our mind, body and spirit. We will be distributing a health survey to find out what you are interested in learning about. This survey will help us focus on areas to enhance our health, be your advocate, and integrate health needs into parish activities. The surveys are available THIS WEEKEND at the church entrances and should be returned to basket at those entrances when completed by February 26th. In addition, we are looking for others interested in collaborating with the parish nurse on health care projects or activities related to your specialty such as writing articles for bulletins or educational events. If you are interested, you can leave your name and number on the Health Care survey. Is God telling you that you have much to offer? Listen to what He may be saying. Thank you for your willingness to respond.

February National Heart Month

Heart disease is a leading cause of death in the US for both men and women. In women it is the number one killer. However, you can do a lot to protect your heart and stay healthy. Each of the following are risk factors and the more factors you have the greater your risk of heart disease. Elevated blood pressure, elevated cholesterol, obesity, diabetes, smoking, lack of physical activity, family history, history of preeclampsia or elevated blood pressure during pregnancy, unhealthy eating habits, age 55 or older for women and age 45 or older for men. To help keep you healthy you need to manage your blood pressure, aim for a healthy weight, quit smoking, eat a heart smart diet, know your cholesterol, manage your diabetes or prediabetes, increase your activity and have an assessment by your health care professional.

In addition, your spiritual heart can be the path to a healthy and content life. It is important to pay close attention to what your heart is taking in on a regular basis. Your heart needs God's word and presence to help you create a healthy life. If your heart takes in fear, worry, and doubt, you will not be content. If you are not content, it is harder to maintain a healthy life style. So quiet those extra voices by finding quiet time, walking, listening to what God is whispering to you, and go deeper in your relationship with God. He is there for you.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL MEETING Tuesday, February 14, 2023

The St. Vincent de Paul Ministry will meet this Tuesday at 6:30pm in church. New members welcome.

SATURDAYS WITH THE CHOSEN BEGINNING FEBRUARY 25TH

Join us on Saturdays during Lent at 1:00pm in the SVF Admin Bldg. hall to watch and reflect together on episodes of The Chosen. Free will offering. Call the parish office to register—248-542-8720.

"The Chosen is the first-ever multi-season show about the life of Jesus. Created outside of the Hollywood system, The Chosen allows us to see Him through the eyes of those who knew him.

The Chosen stays faithful to the Gospels and at the same time tells us a story that is in between the lines of scripture. This series brings to life those people that are mentioned in the Bible, using the historical context of life at the time of Jesus. The series does not contradict scripture, but instead puts life around it so that we as viewers can imagine, "What was life like with Jesus." It really could have been this way.

The Chosen has grown to become the largest crowdfunded TV series of all time."

ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR CHURCH IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

NEXT WEEKEND - FEB. 18/19

Through the generosity of parishioners to this USCCB annual collection, nearly 50 emergency aid grants, totaling more than half a million dollars, brought humanitarian aid to victims and refugees in Ukraine, Poland, Slovakia and Moldova between February and May 2022, the initial stage of this crisis.

We will take a collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe NEXT WEEKEND. Envelopes for this collection can be found at the church entrances. Please make checks payable to St. Vincent Ferrer Church.

SOUP TO SAVOR Recipes Needed!

As Lent seems to be just around the corner, once again we are preparing for our "Virtual Lenten Soup Suppers" to accompany Fr. John's Wednesday Lenten Reflection Series: Hope in Changing Times. As was done over the last 2 years, we are asking parishioners to open up your original soup recipe folders and find one that you would like to share with St. Vincent Ferrer parishioners. We will again print your original recipe in our parish bulletin, as well as post it on our parish website. Do you have a variation on a standard recipe that your family enjoys? Chicken, vegetable, beef barley, sweet and sour, lentil, dill pickle, . . .? As you are willing to share, please leave a copy at the parish office in the next 2 weeks. Thank you!

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

THE SEVEN HOLY FOUNDERS OF THE SERVITE ORDER

On February 17 we honor the seven founding saints of the Order of the Servants of the Virgin Mary. Bonfilius, Alexis, Manettus, Amideus, Hugh, Sostene and Buonagiunta were a group of merchants of Florence who, upon experiencing an apparition of the Blessed Virgin in 1233, renounced their businesses, left what was necessary for their families, and distributed the rest among the poor. They then dedicated themselves entirely to the veneration of the Virgin Mary, going to live on an Italian mountain, each assuming the life of a hermit—prayer, extreme fasting and penance. Sometime later, at the request of the pope's delegate, all but one were ordained priests. Brother Alexis, considering himself unworthy of the priesthood, decided to remain as a brother. They were all canonized in 1888. Their feast day, originally February 11, now falls on the 17th, the date of the death of the last of the seven founders. Brother Alexis died at the age of 110.

License to Sin

In the James Bond movies, 007 has a license to kill. He can shoot all the bad guys he wants without worrying about being charged with murder. God, however, does not issue a license to sin. The first reading from Sirach reminds us that any time we choose between life and death, good and evil, it is our free choice and our responsibility. God may allow us to make bad choices, but God never commands anyone to sin.

Jesus goes even deeper than Sirach. The people of Sirach's time had followed the laws and commandments that governed external actions. As long as they treated others fairly, did not kill anyone or steal from them, they could think whatever they wanted. But Jesus taught that thoughts and desires that lead to sin can also be freely chosen or rejected. In the Gospel he gives us some examples.

The first is about killing. Jesus says that anyone who gets angry enough to kill or who looks down on his neighbor as not deserving to live has committed murder in his heart. What prejudices or grudges am I holding in my heart? The longer I hold onto hurtful feelings, the more likely it becomes that they will lead to hurtful actions. Because the Eucharist is our sacrament of unity, we should take care to be reconciled with others before coming to the altar.

The next warning is about adultery, which also begins with interior feelings. Jesus exaggerates when he tells us to cut off a hand or tear out an eye, because he knew how easily we rationalize our feelings and pretend they are harmless. This leads to the next warning about divorce. Jesus takes marriage seriously and expects his disciples to do the same.

His final example concerns taking oaths. Apparently, people would swear upon almost anything in an effort to be believed. Jesus gets to the point and says that we wouldn't need oaths if we always told the truth and kept our promises. Our faith is based on the knowledge that God keeps promises. Shouldn't we do the same?
