MARCH 19, 2023 † FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

From The Pastor

It is not by accident that the first act of creation was to bring light out of the darkness. Before the act of Divine creation, the world was a formless wasteland. Out of the chaos of this darkness, God called forth light. This act of creation reveals the wisdom of God. God is light and all that God does is to be seen and recognized as good.

The light of God's goodness will always be in opposition to the darkness of chaos and confusion. Light is the first of all spiritual metaphors. The light of God will always be opposed by the darkness of evil. Evil is characterized by deception, chaos, and confusion. Evil hates the light because it fears exposure. Where chaos, confusion, and deception are found, sin and evil are close by.

Jesus is the light of the world who reveals the essence and nature of Divine truth, goodness, and compassion. This is a core theme in the gospel of St. John from whom we read today. In the prologue of John's gospel, Jesus is the Word through whom the world is created. Jesus is a gift and an action of God given for the world's redemption. In his prologue, John refers to Jesus as he writes: "All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness will not overcome it."

This is our hope in God through Christ. It is the reason and the goal of the Lenten season. A second prominent theme of St. John's gospel is that we come to faith in Jesus as the Lord and Christ of all creation. All of the readings throughout Lent point in this direction with the intention of preparing us to renew our profession of faith at Easter. Christ is the light of all truth through whom we find life and hope in God.

The story of the Man Born Blind parallels the story of last Sunday regarding the Samaritan woman. Each is living in a different frame of life. Each bears a different kind of suffering or hinderance to a full life of faith. The desire of Jesus in each case is to bring the suffering to freedom and faith in him. He encounters resistance, but then a realized and accepted faith in both parties.

Notice in both cases, neither the Samaritan woman nor the Blind Man were asking to be healed or seeking faith. Jesus takes the initiative in both cases because he saw faith in both persons hidden under fear, shame, or simple unawareness. Remember, the Samaritan woman and the Blind Man had no idea who Jesus was.

In both cases, Jesus acts out of compassion. He sees a person suffering and moves to bring healing that leads to the gift of faith. Jesus sees both parties ripe for faith that would offer a new and meaningful life of hope and trust in God. This is the course and the intention of our Lenten activity. We are called to deny ourselves for the sake of becoming more aware of the power and action of God in our lives.

We all have things in our life that hinder or obscure our ability to see clearly the action and the presence of God with and within us. We think we see, but we often fail to realize that we mostly see God through the lens of the world. The work of Lent is to clean the lens of our spiritual sight that we may see clearly the light of Christ that is around us.

This is the movement of the story of the Blind Man. He must have wondered who dared to put mud on his eyes with the direction to wash in the pool of Siloam. Why did he do what Jesus said? Why not complain and tell Jesus to get away? He accepts the healing action of Jesus and is moved enough to obey. He is rewarded not only with physical sight, but also a journey to true spiritual sight.

Rejected by the Temple as a sinner because of his blindness, the man has no allegiance to the religious leaders or Temple worship. He feels free to speak his mind and does. He knows Jesus opened his eyes but is unaware of who Jesus is. As the interchange ensues, he calls Jesus a prophet with power to heal. Confronted by the spiritually blind Pharisees, who insist all things are black and white for God, the man confronts their judgement that Jesus is a sinner.

The Blind Man defends Jesus still not knowing who he is. He speaks his truth, "I was blind, now I see." Now he is scorned and cast out by the religious leaders. Jesus again approaches and invites his act of faith. "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" "You have seen him, and the one speaking to you is he."

Can we ask Jesus to open our eyes to deepen our faith? Can we ask Jesus to reveal to us our blindness, stubbornness, or black and white sight that limits our faith? Jesus will never let go. He will always seek you. The light of Jesus has a way of revealing all that is hidden or hindering of the Divine way.

Virtual Soup Supper

Thank you to all who made contributions to Song and Spirit Outreach. Thank you also to Regina Juska-Svoba who submitted the Chilled Beet Soup recipe.

Our charity this week is the St. Vincent Ferrer Parish Benevolent Fund. The St. Vincent Ferrer Parish Benevolent Fund is used for needs brought to the parish which are not met by other sources. It provides donations for a number of charitable outreach efforts as well as supplementing payments for those in need, such as medicine, transportation, and other unexpected expenses that cannot be covered by St. Vincent DePaul, but can be given in conjunction them.

Charitable donations can be made at Fr. John's Lenten Reflection, at the Parish Office or online by visiting our website.

DAD'S FRENCH ONION SOUP

(used with permission from St. Anastasia's Cook book)

- 2 tsp, butter
- 1 c. beef roast stock*
- 4 slices Italian French bread, dry, 1 inch cubes
- 1/2 c. dry white French wine, e.g. chablis*
- 6 medium onions, sliced very thin
- 3 c. water
- 1/2 c. Parmesan/Romano cheese
- 1 c. Swiss cheese, diced
- 4 soup bowls, heat resistant

*The results are limited by the quality of ingredients used. In the soup pot brown onions in butter; add water and beef stock, simmer 1/2 hour.

Preheat broiler; add wine, simmer 5 minutes. Fill bowls to 1/2 inch from rim, float bread, cover with cheeses, brown under broiler and serve bubbly hot with remaining wine. Serves 4

Easter Table Goodies Raffle on

Because Easter falls on the second Sunday of April, our monthly coffee & donut hospitality will be moved to the first Sunday, which is Palm Sunday, April 2nd. All are welcome!

Again this year, on Palm Sunday, we will be conducting an Easter table themed raffle. If you wish to donate a basket of goodies (such as cheese/crackers, small ham, bacon/eggs, confections or a Spring potted plant such as tulips, daffodils, hydrangea, etc.) we would be grateful.

If you plan to donate items or an entire basket for the raffle, please call the Parish Office by March 30th to let us know what you plan to bring. Non-perishable items or baskets filled with non-perishable items can be left at the Parish Office during business hours thru March 30th. If your basket will contain perishable food items, please let us know by Thursday, March 30th what your item is, and then bring it to the hall on the day of the raffle.

You can also support this activity by purchasing raffle tickets - One (1) ticket at $2 or three (3) tickets at $5.

The raffle ticket proceeds will be put toward the purchase of an Automated External Defibrillator (AED). Pick up tickets today in back of church.

Early bulletin deadline:

4th Sunday of Lent

God asks a rhetorical and slightly sarcastic question to Samuel, the prophet: “How long will you grieve for Saul, whom I have rejected as king of Israel?” Like us, Samuel is depressed that the old king failed. It’s painful to admit that the old regime is done. But God won’t let us wallow our pity-party forever. “I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem,” announces the Lord, “for I have chosen my king from among his sons.” Samuel finally goes and anoints the young David as the new king. And his kingdom is glorious; it’s the golden age of Israel’s earthly history.

How discouraging to see that my own selfish ego is no longer in charge! How long will I grieve that money, power, pleasure, and reputation have been rejected as the ruler of my life? How wonderful that God has a new future in store for you and me. He is sending us to Bethlehem to anoint the new David as our king. His kingdom won’t fail us. He’ll slay our goliaths, unite our dispersed energies, and build a Temple where God himself will dwell.

So how long will you grieve? How long?

FILLED EASTER BASKETS FOR OAKLAND COUNTY JAIL OUTREACH MINISTRY Collection March 13 thru 26

Help the Oakland County Jail Outreach Ministry secure Easter Baskets for families that they serve.

Filled Easter Baskets are needed for all ages

Label baskets by age and gender:

Infant to age 1	Toddlers ages 2-4
Youngsters ages 5-8	Pre-teen ages 9-12
Teens ages 13-18	Adults

ITEM SUGGESTIONS:

Baskets should come complete with your typical items found in an Easter basket such as but not limited to: stuffed or plush animals, toys, candy, games, a card or a prayer, children’s books/coloring books/religious books

PERSONAL CARE ITEMS:

hair brush, comb, hair ornaments, toothbrush, toothpaste, body wash, bubble bath, soap etc.

SPECIAL TOUCH OF BEAUTY

You might consider including a packet of seeds, so a child or adult is encouraged to plant and care for some beauty of their own planted near their home.

Filled Easter Baskets can be left on designated tables in church on weekends or dropped off at the Parish Office during the week.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: 1 Sm 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

Much to Samuel’s surprise, the Lord instructed him to anoint the youngest of Jesse’s sons, David, to be the next king of Israel. When have you been surprised by God?

Second Reading: Eph 5:8-14

Paul urges the Ephesians: “Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord.” What do you think pleases the Lord?

Gospel: Jn 9:1-41 or 9:1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

Jesus’ healing of the blind man created confusion, anger, and fear among some of the people witnessing this event. In a real sense, Jesus’ healing exposed the blindness of others. How do we prevent ourselves from being blind to God’s presence in this season of Lent?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
DAILY FAITH

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

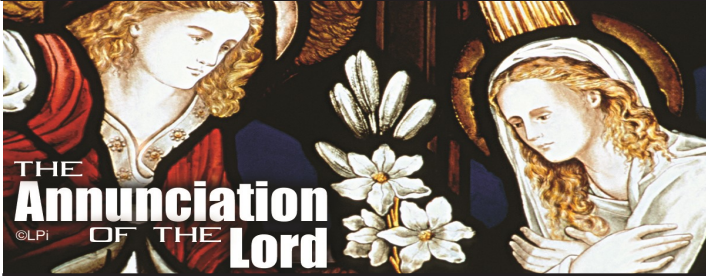

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God’s people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God’s presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God’s people.

Solemnity of St. Joseph
Moved to Monday
March 20, 2023

On March 19th, we celebrate the holiness in the midst of unpredictable fatherhood. We first meet Joseph when he discovers his betrothed is pregnant...and not by him! St. Joseph does not know who the father is (yet), but he knows the punishment for adultery is death. He decides to divorce Mary quietly, and thus save her life. When an angel appears to reveal that Mary is pregnant by the Holy Spirit, St. Joseph trusts his dream and marries her. As a new foster father, Joseph must help his wife give birth in a stable. Later, he needs to escape the threats to his son's life by immigrating with his family to a foreign land. We know that St. Joseph is faithful, brave, and willing to sacrifice for those he loves. On the solemnity of St. Joseph, we don't merely celebrate a carpenter. We celebrate a hero!

Not As Man Sees

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I don't know Fr. Stu personally, but I've heard a fair number of his homilies. I think it is safe to assume that if he and I were to get into a discussion on any number of things, from church history to liturgical music to stand-up comedy, each of us would cringe at the opinions of the other.

But Fr. Stu happens to offer just about the only confession time within 20 miles of me that consistently works with my schedule. That means that, quite by accident, Fr. Stu is my regular confessor. For years now, he's sat patiently on the other side of the grille, listening to me pour out the details of my transgressions, from the pathetic to the embarrassing, and he absolves me of my sins.

In the Gospel, Christ links vision with humility and pride with blindness. We see again and again in Scripture how God delights in surprising us, in revealing himself through people, places, and experiences we not only didn't expect but perhaps had totally written off.

We are right to be proud of the truth, but we are wrong if the truth causes us to be proud of ourselves. The truth no more belongs to the one who believes it than sight belongs to the blind man in the Gospel. A gift does not reflect on the recipient. It reflects on the giver.

After a great deal of thought, I've decided to be grateful that God contrived to give me a confessor whom I strongly disagree with on so many things. It's a powerful reminder of how much I must receive from other people, even those I may think are wrong. In that confessional, Fr. Stu is only a priest, and I am only a sinner.

"Not as man sees does God see." 1 Sam 16:7

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The blind man showed great bravery by speaking of Christ's miracle in the face of the Pharisees' disdain. But then, how could he ignore the truth, once he had seen it? It would be a form of blindness worse than the absence of physical sight. To deny Christ would be a blindness he chose for himself.

A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS

by Robert Bolt

A Production by Sacred Heart Major Seminarians
at Sacred Heart Major Seminary

March 24th at 7:00 p.m. and March 25th at 7:00 p.m.

"This tragic historical drama offers a brilliant portrait of Sir Thomas More in his last years as Lord Chancellor of England during the reign of Henry VIII. When Henry fails to obtain papal approval for a divorce from Catherine of Aragon to marry Anne Boleyn, he mandates his subjects to sign an "Act of Supremacy" making him both spiritual and temporal leader of England. Sir Thomas cannot in good conscience comply. Cromwell, Cardinal Wolsey, his family, and the King himself are all unable to convince More otherwise, as he maintains his integrity and belief in silence. Ultimately accused of high treason, this very silence leads the man to his execution, and later his canonization in 1935."
