MAY 14, 2023 † SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

From The Pastor

The Resurrection is about more than Jesus rising from the dead. The Resurrection of Jesus is about who God is and what God is about as the Divine Creator. Many of the readings in the Easter season rightfully point us back to the basic questions of faith. Christianity holds there is a Supreme being who is the essence of uncreated love. Christians hold that God is infinite, without beginning or end. We believe God is perfectly whole and complete in a Trinity of persons of indivisible unity. God needs nothing. God is the perfect essence of love.

It took some time, several centuries, for the theology of the Trinity to find full expression. The realization and revelation of the Trinity comes from scripture, supported by human experience. Readings like today's gospel make clear the three persons of the Holy Trinity. Jesus consistently refers to God as Father, specifically his Father. Jesus is very clear that he is one with the Father, and he does nothing on his own, only what he sees the Father doing. The earliest expression of this is the Lord's Baptism in the River Jordan. As Jesus comes out of the water, a voice is heard from the heavens, and the Spirit of God is seen in the form of a dove. The voice is that of the Father confirming the nature and identity of the Lord Jesus. "This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased." The Spirit is revealed as the unitive love of the Father and the Son.

Today's gospel gives expression to the function or roles of God. The intention and desire of God is to create as an expression of Divine love. Jesus, the Divine Son, ever-present in the Father, is mediator and Christ of all that is created. The role of the Son is to redeem wounded humanity by becoming fully human in all things but sin. It is the will of God to unite all creation into the unity of Divine love. The Resurrection of Jesus is ultimately the revelation of who God is in bringing unity to all creation. Jesus is not alone in his dying and rising. He is in the constant presence of the Father and the Holy Spirit.

The Father and the Son perfectly reflect one another. Jesus fulfills the commandment of God by perfectly revealing the nature and essence of Divine love through his human life. The fulness of this revelation is Jesus' death on the Cross through a freely given, self-surrender of his human and Divine nature. Jesus surrenders to death to defeat the lie of sin and the deception of evil by the surpassing power of love. Divine love cannot fail and cannot be defeated by the evil of fallen angels who are themselves created beings. Jesus fulfills the Divine desire to unite wounded humanity and all creation to the glory of God.

Jesus is the first Advocate sent on our behalf to redeem humanity and all creation. After the Resurrection, Jesus asks the Father to send a second Advocate. The Holy Spirit is given to us as the Spirit of Truth, which is to say the Spirit of God, the essence of the Father and the Son. The Holy Spirit is the presence and the power of the Risen Christ. Now risen from the dead, Jesus remains with us and in us in the person of the Holy Spirit.

Ponder this reflection, please. It supports and expresses the nature and purpose of our Baptism. We are children of God, Temples of the Holy Spirit in whom God dwells. This is God's doing. It is not dependent on our behavior or performance. It is God's desire, intention, and joy to live in us. We are his children. We belong to God in Christ through the Holy Spirit. This reflection anticipates the Feast of the Ascension next week and the Feast of Pentecost a week later.

It is also an effective framework in which we celebrate Mother's day. Mothers are an image of the self-giving of Divine love. Mary, the Mother of Jesus, who we honor in the month of May, is the perfect example. Mary's life is totally surrendered to God in her love and care of Jesus, even as she gives her Son for the life of the world. A mother's love expresses the other-centered love modeled by Jesus. Out of love, mothers bring forth new life and offer themselves for the safety, care, and well-being of their children. Motherhood, I am sure, can at times feel like a thankless job of endless, unappreciated response to the needs of others.

Moms, we honor you today for the priceless love and life you have given us. You are worthy of love and every good thing. Accept our thanks and deep gratitude for who you are and all you do in our lives. May the blessing of Jesus and the intercession of Mary our Mother, be with you always.

For all those blest to have a living mother or grandmother, do not fail to offer your expressions of love for the gift your mother is to you. Mothers are not perfect but try getting along without one. Thank you, moms!

Lord Jesus,

ROSARY PRAYER INVITATION

MONDAY, May 22 at 7pm
Administration Bldg. Patio

The Immaculata prayer group invites all to join them on the Administration Building Patio to pray the Holy Rosary on the second and fourth Mondays of May thru August, 2023.

If the weather is intolerable, we will not meet but ask all to pray the rosary in private. The Immaculata group prayers will be at 6:30 pm and the Rosary will begin at 7:00 pm.

Please bring your own lawn chair, a rosary, your prayer intentions, and, if needed, a bottle of water. If you have any questions please contact Jane McKay at 248-548-2765.

Join others to watch and reflect on Season 2 episodes of "THE CHOSEN"

Wednesday Afternoons through June 14 at 1:00pm in the Admin Bldg.

This is a multi-season series about the life of Jesus. All are welcome. No registration required.

Time To Make A Change
On Sundays after 9am Mass, weather permitting, we will be walking in the neighborhood for some exercise. Bring your walking shoes and meet us at the Gardenia entrance.

God is always willing to join you at the starting line, but never content with letting you remain the way you are. Jesus walked 39 miles to Capernaum to spread his message and more. Join us for a Jesus inspired walk at your own pace and distance.

We know that regular physical activity is key to improving health, wellness, and spiritual wellbeing. It is also clear that there are mental health benefits as well. Most of us do not have a regular exercise routine. Most of our chronic diseases, heart disease, and cancers can be prevented or helped with a healthy diet and exercise. Therefore, we need to insert some regular walking or other forms of exercise into our schedules.

Let's encourage each other as part of a community to move more, sit less, and feel better!

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew. This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

CAN CATHOLICS GAMBLE?

Question:

The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer:

Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.

Biblical Brainteaser

There are names of sixteen books of the Bible mentioned in the paragraph below. See how many you can find:

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept people looking so hard for facts... and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Rest assured, for there really are sixteen names of books of the Bible in this paragraph. (answers at bottom of page)

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Is there someone whom you believe that the Lord has placed in your path to bring to Him through the OCIA at this time? If so, be sure to pray for her/him as the Holy Spirit urges you. You may be the link between that person and the gift of the Grace of life in God for her/him. What greater gift can we share with another?

Everyday Stewardship

My children could never succeed without their mother and me. That isn't me thinking too much of ourselves, it is just a fact. No one can find success in life in total isolation. I could never have become who I am today without my parents, various teachers and mentors, and my wife. Truth be told, I probably owe a lot of who I am to my children as well.

I can only imagine the fear and concern of the first disciples when it was apparent that Jesus was not going to be with them much longer. Some probably thought since Jesus had risen from the dead, he might just live with them in the same way forever. But Jesus tried to calm their fears by assuring them, "I will not leave you orphans." He said he would continue to come to them and that he would send the Spirit to be with them at all times. They would not have to continue what he had started and preach the good news to the ends of the earth on their own.

We may sometimes feel that we are alone. We may at times try to do too much or show others that we are independent and strong. However, without the help of others, without the help of God, true success will always elude us. Our actions and words can become empty. The gifts we have received can either be cultivated in secret and in the shadows, or we can welcome the help that God provides in his Spirit, his community, and the sacraments he gave us. By working together the world will truly know the power of the risen Lord. Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS © Liturgical Publications Inc

GETTING TO KNOW OUR SAINTS...

Venerable Maria Consuelo Sanjurjo Santos

Venerable Maria Consuelo Soledad Sanjurjo Santos was born in Puerto Rico on November 15, 1892. By the time she was nine years old both of her parents had passed away. Extended family then placed her and her sister Antonia in a boarding school run by the Servants of Mary, Ministers to the Sick... Maria was so attracted to the religious life that she entered the Servants of Mary, Ministers to the Sick as a postulant as soon as she turned 16. Even as a child she was known to have deep devotion to Jesus.

Since the Servants of Mary didn't have any houses for formation in Puerto Rico, Maria had to begin her postulancy in Madrid. After four years she was transferred to Cuba where under her new name, Maria Soledad, she took her perpetual vows on April 30, 1921. She remained in Havana and in 1929 she became the Secretary and Conciliar of the Congregation of the Servants of Mary. After 10 years in that position, she became Mother Superior of a couple different houses following which she was appointed the Provincial Superior of the Antilles which included Haiti, Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic.

Now, leading the Servants of Mary in the Caribbean, Mother Maria Soledad set her heart on scaling up the apostolic work they were doing in that area of the world. She founded communities for the Sisters all over the islands. She especially hoped to begin a novitiate program in her home island, Puerto Rico, so when young women wanted to enter into the congregation they wouldn't have travel, like she did, to Madrid first. This hope was realized in 1954 upon the opening of a novitiate in Ponce, Puerto Rico.

After 40 years of serving at her congregation's headquarters in Cuba, Mother Maria Soledad moved the Provincial House of the Servants of Mary to Puerto Rico in 1962... Following a heart attack, she completed her time as Provincial Superior in 1966 and ...Spent her time focusing on sewing clothes for her sisters, daily prayer, and assisting the sick.

After 62 years of consecrated life, Mother Maria Soledad died on April 23, 1973, in San Juan and was recognized for her heroic virtue by Pope Francis on January 15, 2019, and named Venerable. She is now one step away from beatification.
